Notes:

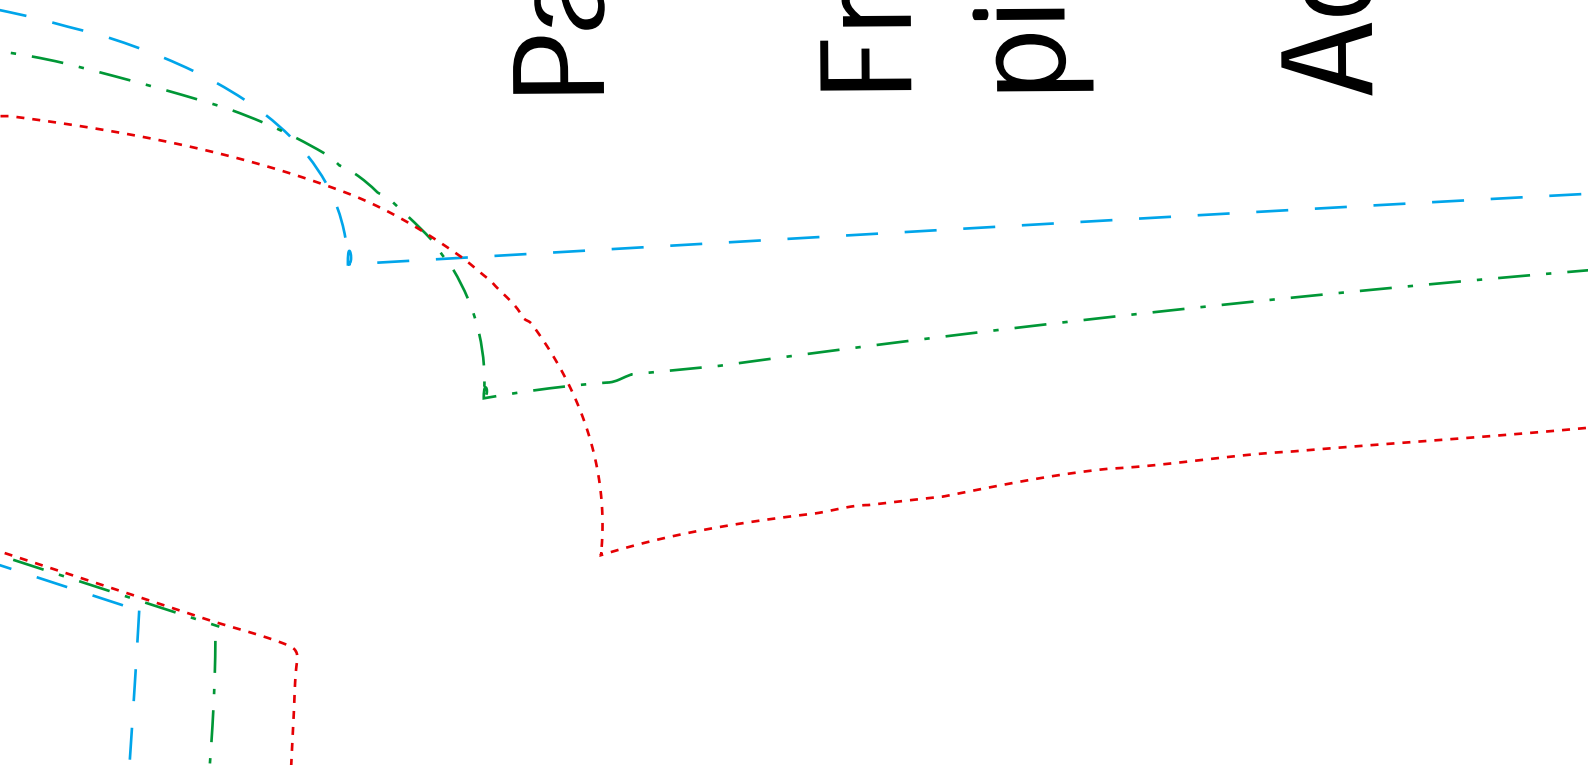

This shirt is designed using single jersey from certified organic cotton, combined with recycled men's shirts. The recycled shirt piece on front (grey in the image), includes thus reuses the original buttonholes and buttons. The collar was detached and transformed into a standing collar, having it's length adjusted to fit the neckline of the pattern.

Not included pattern parts at the chart are the square pieces for the arm- and waist cuffs. The cuffs are double folded on the height. See pattern chart for cuff measurements.

The image features three nested dashed rectangles. The innermost rectangle is blue, the middle one is green, and the outermost one is red. All three rectangles are oriented with their top and bottom edges horizontal. The text 'C2' is centered within the blue rectangle. The blue rectangle's right side is slightly slanted towards the bottom. The green rectangle is slightly larger and also has a slight slant on its right side. The red rectangle is the largest and is perfectly rectangular.
